With the summer in full swing and two of the three cruises over, it seems that there is minimal interest in taking the trips anymore. The final trip of the season is scheduled to Edgewater Yacht Club. Even though the Air Show has been cancelled, the objective is always to get away and enjoy the weekend and the more that attend the better. By land or by water, it doesn't matter; they are always a good time. I would also like to welcome the new members to the Club. It's always nice to see the membership grow throughout the year. If you know any of the new members or the new dock members, invite them down to the Club to enjoy some of the fun and entertainment. Jimmy Buffet night is around the corner as well as the Luau and the Clam Bake is rapidly approaching. I'll be looking for you at the Wheelhouse!

Respectfully,

Bob Coffman
Commodore

Vice Commodore – Norman Heppner

Rear Commodore – John Lively

I can't believe it's already August. With the less than ideal weather we've had it seems like summer is flying by.

I want to take a minute to thank everyone that helped with the Dinghy Poker Run. Bobby, Joyce, Morgan, Bill, Connie, Wayne, Joanie and Commodore Coffman. Thank You. If I missed anyone I apologize.

Also I want to recognize the businesses that donated prizes for the event:
Fligner's Market      Harbortown Marine      Loco Leprechaun
Huron Boat Basin      The Jackalope      Lorain Palace Theatre
Spitzer Marinas      The Wheelhouse      Wood & Wine Restaurant
LSYC Gas Dock LLC

Please try to support the businesses that support us.

Thank you Teri for the incredible Bloody Mary Bar you put together. The response from everyone was great. I'm sure we'll find a way to put that on the calendar again next year.

Moving on to August, we have a lot of events:

August 3rd is Jimmy Buffet night, get your Parrot Head friends together and enjoy a margarita or two.

August 10th is Family Movie night on the Deck.
