The New Year has brought in 2010 with a breath of cold and waves of snow. When we talk about expecting 2 to 4 this time of year, we are referring to inches, not feet. But Lake Erie is still not far from our thoughts and the boat show will only make us long, all the more, to return to those seasonal boating forecasts. Read on to find out about many events going on at the boat show this year. We will have flyers available at the Spitzer booth this year with a boat show special. Please encourage anyone considering joining this year to check out the boat show membership special for new members. Also consider inviting anyone considering becoming a new member to sign up with you to come to the Commodores Ball. SAVE THE DATE...the ball will be March 6, 2010 and festivities will begin Friday evening. Watch your mail for your invitations. Looking forward to seeing you at the 2010 Ball and to what follows shortly after, boating season.

Mike Pollock

Boat Show Special Events

---

Lake Erie Day

---

On Martin Luther King Jr. Day (Jan. 18) the boat show will raise money for Lake Erie research by donating $1 from each ticket to the Ohio State University Sea Grant Program and Stone Laboratory.

Sea Grant's programming for the day will be highlighted by a presentation from Kristen Stanford, the Lake Erie water snake researcher who was featured on an episode of "Dirty Jobs" on the Discovery Channel.

Food Drive Tuesday (free admission for food? read on...)

---

Each visitor that brings four cans of food on Tuesday, Jan. 19, will receive free admission to the show. All food will be donated to the Cleveland Foodbank to help feed the hungry in the community.

Put-in-Bay Day – $5 after 5

---

At 5 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 21, the show's admission price will be reduced to $5 through the remainder of the night to celebrate South Bass Island's summer hot spot. Join exhibitors from the village in the Put-in-Bay Pavilion for an evening of entertainment from Mike "Mad Dog" Adams, Ray Fogg, and Westside Steve Simmons!

WMJI Wing Eating Contest

---

On Friday, Jan. 22, local contestants will try to eat as many Winking Lizard chicken wings as possible to win a pair of suite tickets to a Cavaliers game! The contest starts at 6 p.m. and will be judged by WMJI's Jimmy Malone.

Adapt-a-Pet

---

On Jan. 15, 16, 23 and 24, the Northeast Ohio SPCA will hold an adopt-a-pet drive at the show. Dogs and cats like boating just as much as you do!

I-68 Permits Available at the boat show too!

U.S. Customs and Border Protection will be offering Canadian Border Boat Landing (I-68) Permits at the show. The permit allows recreational boaters entering the U.S. from Canada to report arrivals by phone. To sign up, you will need to bring a government-issued identification and your passport. The cost (payable with cash or a check) is $16 for an individual or $32 for a family.
