FYI

If you haven't been to been to Vermilion's Quaker Steak and Lube in the old Red Clay location, they have done a nice job adding a boating theme. Inside they have an amphicar on display, a racing speedboat among other water related items. Outside, they added a bar down at dock level where they also serve food. They have expanded the amount of river view dining by taking advantage of the location and dock space below their upper deck. It is worth checking out!
